1. What sets Relentless apart from other novels on the shelves these days?
2. How did you first come up with this story and these characters?
3. What is Relentless meant to say to readers? Or do you prefer letting them draw their own conclusions?
4. What's your favorite part of the fiction writing process?
5. Did you always want to be a novelist?
6. What writers have most influenced you and your writing?
7. What are you passionate about, and how does that tie into Relentless?
